

The poorest communities in America are devastated by drugs, alcohol abuse, and violence. The sobering fact is that American churches have often sought to serve the poor, while overlooking discipleship among the poor. The need is real.

In one American neighborhood...¹

The average life expectancy of an individual is 65; 14 years below the U.S. average and 19 years below the city's wealthiest neighborhoods.

93.5% of children less than 18 years old live in single parent homes.

85% of children come from low-income families, only half will graduate high school.

60% of adults are unemployed.

The median income is $15,950.

...and this is similar to inner-city neighborhoods around the nation.

BUILDING HEALTHY CHURCHES IN THE INNER CITY

ONE HOPE is a ministry of
The Garden Church
Baltimore, Maryland

The greatest poverty we face is not the poverty of food or cash, but a poverty of the Word. We believe that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the one hope that fully addresses the problem and changes communities. We believe that building healthy, Gospel-centered churches in the nation's poorest communities is the best strategy for promoting and creating real change.

BECOME A PARTNER CHURCH

One of the goals of the church of Jesus Christ is not to merely serve the poor, but to make disciples among the poor.

Jesus came and brought good news to the broken. Often, however, the most broken communities are overlooked in intentional gospel discipleship. Given the unique and difficult challenges which generationally impoverished communities face, discipleship must be intentional, enduring, and intense. And we need help!

You can partner with ONE HOPE as we plant a network of churches in the inner city. Partner churches support the work of ONE HOPE financially. They may also choose to come, see, and serve.

"While my life was once filled with the streets and weed, I've come to know the Savior. I now have a passion for the Scriptures and want to help others know Christ...not someone's idea of Jesus, but who Jesus actually is in the Scriptures."
